In Memoriam.

During our first College year one starred name appeared upon our class-roll. RODGERS left us, the first to represent our class above.

And now a newly made grave in Greenwood reminds us of the peaceful, quiet death of another. We will long cherish the memory of noble, generous, HOWARD FREEMAN, whose manly form and buoyant spirits had made him a favorite in College. His life was full of promise, his death was full of hope.

And several Ladies' Seminaries, beg to announce that having received applications from various College Classes of '71 to make their Class Photographs, they are prepared to make the earliest possible arrangements with Committees.

Sarony & Co., would especially call attention to the fact that the beauty of the views depends upon the pictures being taken in the Fall, an early appreciation from Classes of '71 is therefore earnestly recommended.

TESTIMONIAL FROM WEST POINT.

U. S. M. A., West Point, N. Y.,
May 17th, 1870.

Messrs. Sarony & Co.:—As our business connections are about to end, we take pleasure in expressing in brief terms our complete satisfaction as to the manner in which they have been sustained on your part. The wide spread reputation which your firm has so justly acquired, of course renders it unnecessary and superfluous for us to testify as to your abilities in the art of photography, but we cannot forbear expressing our appreciation of the gentlemanly qualities which have without exception characterized the members of your firm with whom we have been brought in contact.

Especially has this been the case with Mr. McLean and Mr. Otto Sarony, with whom we have been most exclusively connected in consequence of their position as heads of the "College Department" of your business, and we feel it a pleasure to recommend them to those who desire complete satisfaction in their class and individual photographs.

S. W. Fountain, P. S. Bownes, Jas. Rockwell, Jr. } Committee for the Class of '70, U. S. Mil. Academy.

Hamilton College, Clinton, Oneida Co., N. Y.,
May 17th, 1870.

Messrs. Sarony & Co.—Gentlemen:—In returning the proofs of our Class Pictures I wish to take the opportunity to say that they are very satisfactory, and far superior to any thing we have had taken before. To say that we are well satisfied with the Gentlemanly manner in which Mr. McLean has conducted the business seems hardly sufficient. In regard to the manner in which Mr. Otto Sarony has performed his part of the work we cannot speak too highly, and I most heartily recommend him to my successors.

Very respectfully, &c.

C. J. EVERETT,
Chairman of Committee, Class of '70.
